Summary of purpose and/or changes:

Legislative Bill 199 would eliminate the requirement in § 79-473 for negotiations between school districts when application for approval of a final plat or replat of territory is filed and, if no agreement is reached, the required transfer of such territory. The current requirement only applies to territory within the zoning jurisdiction of cities of the first and second class.

Explanation of amendments, if any:

Senator Ron Raikes, Chairperson
